

Workshop in English

Networking and unsolicited job search for international graduates

Enter the Danish job market through network and proactivity

In this workshop, you will get inspiration regarding the use of networking and unsolicited job search to gain access to the Danish job market.

We will talk about job search in Denmark and you will be given advice on navigating in your job search process. We will discuss how to network within a foreign culture and how you can use various tools that can help you gain access to the Danish job market.

We will focus on:

- Tendencies in recruiting
- The unsolicited job search
- Using internship and wage subsidiary in your job search
- Network

Please bring your CV and laptop.

Sign up for workshops: "Min side" – www.jobnet.dk